AURA Spa Etiquette

RESERVATIONS

We recommend booking your spa treatment in advance to ensure desired time and availability.

Spa appointments are reserved specifically for you, so we ask you to give us 24 hours advance notice should you wish to change or cancel your appointments.

We encourage you to arrive at least 15 minutes prior to your scheduled appointment. This will allow enough time to check in. A robe and slippers will be provided upon arrival.

Our therapists are highly skilled in correct draping procedure to ensure your complete comfort and privacy. However, undergarments may be worn during treatments, if you wish.

Failure to arrive for a scheduled treatment will result in a charge of the full value of the treatments.

AGE

Spa guests must be 16 years of age and over to receive any spa service.

PHONES

This spa is a cell phone free zone. To maintain a tranquil and relaxing environment, we require that cell phones and other devices be turned to silent inside the spa facilities.

MEDICAL

Kindly inform us of any special needs that require attention, any health conditions allergies or injuries. If you are pregnant, certain treatments may not be recommended.

VALUABLES

Please don't bring any valuables to the spa. The spa and hotel are not responsible for any lost or stolen items. Before leaving, please check that you have not left any personal items behind you in the spa facilities.

CANCELLATION POLICY

We kindly ask you to notify the spa if you need to cancel any appointments. Cancellations made within less than 24 hours and no shows are charged the cost of the full treatment price.

PRODUCT PURCHASES

To continue our Spa regime at home, most products used in our treatments are available for purchase. Speak to our therapist to guide you accordingly on the ideal product for you.

GRATUITIES

Gratuities are not included in the spa pricing.
